City of Groversville Summer Recreation Program

Operated in conjunction with Fulton County YMCA

July 26th - August 27th

10:30am-3:00pm - Ages 6-14 at the YMCA

City residents may participate in this FREE Summer Recreation Program at Fulton County YMCA. Daily youth activities include sports & games in the gym or on outdoor sports fields, swimming, arts & crafts, board & table games, computers & weekly themes including basketball, soccer, baseball/softball, swim instruction & drama. All activities are supervised by caring, qualified staff for a safe, fun summer.

This drop-in program operates Monday–Friday, 10:30am - 3:00pm. Children may attend the entire time, any portion of the day or whatever days they would like. Children should bring: sneakers, swimsuit, towel, clothing suitable for the weather since we'll be outside most days, a water bottle & lunch or snacks for the day. Please label all your child's items with their name and send them in a book bag or tote bag.

Transportation: Parents/guardians may drop off & pick up their children at the YMCA or children may use free city bus service back & forth to the YMCA. The daily bus schedule is as follows:*

- 10:00am - Depart Groversville Transportation Center
- 10:05am - Corner of McNabb & W. Fulton St.
- 10:10am - Dubois Apartments
